Annex 9 – Working parties and working groups

List of standing and temporary working parties working with scientific committees.

As part of the EMA business continuity plan, many working party meetings and expert groups were temporarily suspended or reduced in 2021.

When the mandate of a working party or experts group expired and no new chair election took place due to the business continuity plan, the records are marked “on hold” in the tables below.

Committee for Medicinal Products for Human Use (CHMP)

Annex 21 - Litigation activities of EMA in 2022

Actions before the Court of Justice of the European Union that are directed against EMA (pending or concluded in 2022)

1. Case T-556/20, D&A Pharma v Commission and EMA

On 4 September 2020, the applicant brought an action against the European Commission and EMA in connection with the decision of the European Commission to refuse the grant of a conditional marketing authorisation for a medicinal product for human use.

By its judgment of 2 March 2022, the General Court rejected the application for annulment and the applicant was ordered to bear the costs and those incurred by the Commission and EMA.

On 2 May 2022, the applicant submitted an appeal against the judgment at first instance.

2. Case T-570/20, Kedrion v EMA

On 11 September 2020, the applicant brought an action against the decision of EMA to refuse access, pursuant to Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001 to a document inserted in the Plasma Master File submitted by another pharmaceutical company.

On 26 January 2022, the General Court delivered its judgment in Case T-570/20 annulling the contested decision without addressing the merits of EMA's refusal to disclose the contested document, and motivating the annulment with the lack of sufficient justification in EMA's decision letter. EMA was ordered to pay its own costs and those incurred by the applicant.

3. Case T-653/20, Mylan Ireland v EMA

On 28 October 2020, the applicant brought an action against the decision of EMA to not validate an application for a generic medicinal product.

On 6 December 2022, the applicant notified the General Court that it wished to discontinue the proceedings in Case T-653/20.

4. Case T-703/20, Mylan Ireland v EMA

On 27 November 2020, the applicant brought an action against the decision of EMA to not validate an application for a generic medicinal product. The proceedings remained pending in 2022.

5. Case T-418/21, Alauzun and Others v Commission and EMA

On 12 July 2021, a group of natural persons brought an action against the European Commission and EMA in connection with the decision of the European Commission extending the indication of an authorised COVID-19 vaccine to persons of 12 years of age and older.

On 14 January 2022, the Court issued an order rejecting the action as inadmissible and ordered the applicants to bear the legal costs.

6. Case C-440/21 P, EMA v Pharmaceutical Works Polpharma

On 15 July 2021, EMA brought an appeal against the Judgment of the General Court of 5 May 2021 in Case T-611/18, Pharmaceutical Works Polpharma v EMA. Appeals were also submitted by the interveners in the first instance.

On 6 October 2022, Advocate General Medina delivered her opinion in the appellate proceedings. In her opinion, she proposed that the Court of Justice should set aside the judgment of the General Court, reject the application for annulment of Pharmaceutical Works Polpharma, and also order the applicant to bear the costs of the proceedings.

7. Case T-713/21, Agentur für Globale Gesundheitsverantwortung v EMA

On 5 November 2021, the applicant brought an action against the decision of EMA to grant partial access, pursuant to Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001, to a document containing information on a study relating to a COVID-19 vaccine.

After the submission of EMA's defence, the applicant applied, on 3 May 2022, for the discontinuance of the court proceedings. By order of 8 July 2022 of the President of the Eighth Chamber of the General Court, the case was removed from the register and the applicant was ordered to pay its own costs and those incurred by EMA.

8. Case T-806/21, NV v EMA

On 27 December 2021, an action was initiated against a decision of EMA that did not recognise that the illness of a staff member was allegedly caused by their work.

By order of 12 December 2022, the case was removed from the register.

9. Case C-136/22 P, D & A Pharma v EMA

On 25 February 2022, the applicant brought an appeal against the first-instance judgment in Case T-381/21, which had ruled in favour of EMA.

10. Case C-291/22 P, D & A Pharma v EMA

On 2 May 2022, the applicant brought an appeal against the first-instance judgment in Case T-556/20, which had ruled in favour of EMA.

11. Case T-574/22, ViiV Healthcare v EMA

On 15 September 2022, the applicant submitted an action for annulment against the decision of EMA to suspend the validation of an application for marketing authorisation.

12. Case T-623/22, SD v EMA

On 7 October 2022, the applicant brought an action for annulment against the decision of EMA to grant partial access to documents relating to the authorisation of a COVID-19 vaccine.

Actions before the Court of Justice of the European Union that are not directed against EMA, but concern EMA's scientific assessments (pending or concluded in 2022)

13. Case T-303/16, Mylan IRE Healthcare v Commission

On 14 June 2016, an action was brought against the decision of the European Commission, adopted in the framework of Article 29 of Directive 2001/83/EC, concerning a number of marketing authorisations of nationally authorised medicinal products for human use.

By its judgment of 26 January 2022, the General Court rejected the application for annulment against the Commission.

14. Case T-223/20, Orion v Commission

On 23 April 2020, an action was brought against the decision of the European Commission to grant a marketing authorisation for a generic medicinal product for human use. The proceedings remained pending in 2022.

15. Joined Cases C-6/20 P and C-16/21 P, Germany and Estonia v Pharma Mar and Commission

On 17 September 2021, EMA was granted leave to intervene in support of the forms of order sought by two Member States in their respective appeals against the judgment of the General Court of 28 October 2020 in Case T-594/18, Pharma Mar v Commission.

On 12 October 2022, a hearing was held before the Court of Justice.

16. Case T-138/21, Virbac v Commission

On 4 March 2021, the applicant brought an action against the decision of the European Commission to grant a marketing authorisation for a medicinal product for veterinary use.

On 29 July 2022, the applicant applied for the discontinuance of the Court proceedings. By order of 31 August 2022, the case was removed from the register.

17. Case T-464/21, Faller and Others v Commission

By order of 7 February 2022, the General Court rejected as inadmissible an action for annulment against a decision of the European Commission relating to the grant of a conditional marketing authorisation for a COVID-19 vaccine.

18. Case C-237/22 P, Mylan IRE Healthcare v Commission

On 4 April 2022, Mylan submitted an appeal against the first-instance judgment in Case T-303/16. On 22 September 2022, EMA was granted leave to intervene in support of the European Commission by the President of the Court of Justice. EMA submitted its statement in intervention on 24 October 2022.

19. Case T-416/22, Fresenius Kabi Austria and Others v Commission

On 1 July 2022, an action for annulment was brought against the decision of the European Commission to suspend the national marketing authorisations for medicinal products for human use which contain the active substance "hydroxyethyl starch (HES), solutions for infusion". In particular, the applicants seek to challenge the soundness of the scientific assessment of a post-authorisation study which preceded the adoption of the Commission decision.

EMA submitted an application for leave to intervene in support of the European Commission on 26 October 2022.

20. Case T-483/22, Genzyme Europe v Commission

On 4 August 2022, the applicant brought an action seeking the partial annulment of the decision of the European Commission to not to recognize the active substance of Nexviadyne (avalglucosidase alfa) as a new active substance and to remove the medicinal product from the Union register of orphan medicinal products.

EMA submitted an application for leave to intervene in support of the European Commission on 15 December 2022.

21. Case T-786/22, Frajese v Commission

On 18 December 2022, the applicant brought an action for annulment against the decision of the European Commission to grant full marketing authorisations to two COVID-19 vaccines.
